Tree Lightings Central to Holiday Season

THOUSANDS CROWD INTO THE LEONARTOWN SQUARE NOV. 29 FOR THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING

BY GUY LEONARD
STAFF WRITER

With Christmas rapidly approaching, families are preparing to gather around their Christmas trees at home. But before that communities will have the chance to gather for tree lightings to commemorate the yuletide season.

The tree lightings in the town square of Leonardtown and the volunteer fire company in Hollywood are among the largest in St. Mary's.

As many as 10,000 people pour into Leonardtown each year Nov. 29 for Christmas on the Square to see the annual tree lighting, which has many other events mixed in, including a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus.

"The event brings holiday traditions to life with festive music, fire truck rides, face painting, a living Nativity, horse & carriage rides, a petting zoo and make-and-take crafts," a town release stated. Frosty the Snowman will be on the square for visiting as well as Mrs. Claus, spectators have to wait for Santa Claus to arrive on his sleigh for the tree lighting at 7 p.m.

The entire celebration lasts from 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

For anyone who misses a chance to meet with Santa Nov. 29, he and Mrs. Claus will return Dec. 17 from 4 p.m. to 6p.m. to have private visits with families who have disabled members as well as families who are celebrating Christmas with their first baby.

The Claus family will return once again to Leonardtown Dec. 21 to peruse Christmas gift wish lists.

The tree lighting at the Hollywood Volunteer Fire Department in Hollywood takes place just two days later on Dec. 1.

"In the grand scheme of things this is a small version of that [the Leonardtown tree lighting]," said Hollywood Fire Chief Richard Brady.

But it's still one of the highlights of the Christmas season for Hollywood.

"We give truck rides around the parking lot," Brady said. "We've got games and activities like making Christmas ornaments."

Each child will get a number so they know when they can visit with Santa Claus that night, Brady said.

"That way they don't have to wait around, they'll have plenty to do," said Brady.

Aside from tree lightings, one local business is holding an event to benefit the Hospice House of St. Mary's. this Christmas season.

Suttler Post Farms of Mechanicsville, which delivers the annual Christmas tree to the White House with a team of Clydesdale horses, is holding an open house Dec. 14 to benefit the hospice house.

Along with holiday horse and carriage rides, there will be face painting for children, wine tasting for adults as well as local meats and crafts and baked good for sale.

Suttler Post Farm is located on 38750 Chaptico Road; the event runs from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

North Beach

Catches the Christmas Spirit

BY DICK MYERS
EDITOR

The Town of North Beach begins the festive holiday season Friday, November 29 by Lighting Up the Town! Onlookers gather on the pavilion as they flip the switch to light up the town Christmas tree and holiday displays. The Christmas Tree Lighting takes place at 7 p.m.

On Saturday, Dec. 7, the Annual Pat Carpenter Holiday Parade draws spectators from afar! The boardwalk is lined with hundreds of people viewing the parade. The best part is when the jolly-old-fat man arrives by fire truck! Santa and Mrs. Claus visit with children and give them a special treat.

Every year, organizations from all over northern Calvert and southern Anne Arundel participate in the parade, on floats or in cars (antique and otherwise) or (trailer) boats, or on foot. It's one of the biggest Christmas parades in the area.

Also, on Saturday in North Beach from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. will be the Christmas Market. Vendors will line 5th Street near Bay Avenue and the waterfront. They will offer crafts, food, Christmas trees and wreaths, shopping and much more

Tell the kids to bring their wish list to share with Santa. He and Mrs. Claus will be available for visits and picture taking after the parade.

Warm up around the campfire as you enjoy refreshments including marshmallow roasting on the fire.

Scenes from the 2018 even accompany this article.

Madrigal Dinners Take the Christmas Spirit Back Centuries

MUSIC IS A LARGE PART OF THE MADRIGAL DINNER EXPERIENCE

BY GUY LEONARD
STAFF WRITER

Historic St. Mary's City offers lovers of dinner, night life and festival the chance to look at what celebrating Christmas in the 17th century was like.

Madrigal dinners provide nighttime feasting and music at the replica of first State House built as the capital of the Maryland colony, first settled in 1634.

"They're awesome," said event coordinator Mary Bohanon. "The decorations are different each year;

WHAT DINERS CAN EXPECT TO SEE AT A MADRIGAL DINNER

the Mistress Brent Garden Club chooses them."

The dinners begin Dec. 6 and run on Dec. 7, 8, 13 and 14; event planners are still taking reservations.

The maximum capacity each night is 80 attendees with 10 people per table; members of Historic St. Mary's City pay $90, while non-members pay $95.

This Christmas represents the 48th year the city has hosted madrigal dinners, billed as: "a night of good food, libations, music and amusing skits in the beautifully decorated State House with the ambiance of candlelight and open fires in the fireplaces."

Dress is semi-formal and period dress is welcomed.

The evening begins at 6p.m. with wassail served on the second floor; guests are expected to bow or curtsy upon meeting the high-born hosts at the affair.

Dinner is served on the first floor of the state house.

The appetizers are stuffed ham on rolls or biscuits, crab fondue, cheese board with grapes.

The dinner is family style fried oysters followed by plated dinner of scones and rolls, fresh field green salad, beef tenderloin, stuffed chicken breast, green beans, roasted potatoes and chocolate cake.

The menu has overtones of yesteryear but is still geared towards modern palates.

The drinks are spiked and un-spiked wassail, red and white wine, iced tea, water, coffee and hot tea. There is a vegetarian option of stuffed winter squash as the main entree and gluten free option as well.

The madrigal dinners have their history in the ebb and flow of trade between England and its far flung colony.

"In the colony, delicacies arrived with the tobacco fleet towards the end of the year, and cool weather signaled time for butchering meat and decanting beverages that had fermented since the harvest," according to the city's history.

These would form the basis of the dinners; many other aspects would be added to the celebration.

"The notion of adding music to the meal was introduced to England from Italy, and the 16th-century lords and ladies of the land enjoyed great madrigal feasts. Today's madrigal dinners feature other customs that were probably familiar to the colonists. The burning of a Yule log, a common practice by the Middle Ages, was thought to bring good luck in the New Year," according to the city's history. "Plants that magically remained green through the bleakest times have held a special significance since Ancient Rome. In 15th- and 16th- century England, musicians sang carols to introduce the Christmas story to those who were unable to read."

Experience a Magical Holiday Light Show

Visit Annual Annmarie Garden in Lights!

Annmarie Sculpture Garden & Arts Center in Solomons, Maryland, announces the Annmarie Garden in Lights schedule for the 2019 holiday season. This family-friendly light art event is a joyful outing for all ages - and is a favorite Southern Maryland holiday tradition. The Garden is transformed with more than one million lights in dazzling and unique installations and vignettes. Guests will be delighted with the quirky and unique "light sculptures" that transform the Garden into a glittering kaleidoscope of color. Take a walk through the protected quarter mile wooded path, then come inside and enjoy live entertainment, food, and holiday shopping. Annmarie Garden in Lights will be open to the public from Nov. 29, 2019 to Jan. 1, 2020, 6-9 p.m. nightly (closed Dec. 2, 3, 9, 10, 24, 25).

"This is one of our favorite times of the year at the Garden. It's all about celebrating creativity and a celebration of the season. We create the light show each year with love and enthusiasm and the ultimate goal spreading joy. This year, as always, we're adding more lights and new ideas to dazzle our guests," says Stacey Ruff, director of Annmarie Garden.

Annmarie Garden in Lights also features live entertainment each night, the Hardesty Haven Holiday Café, unique shopping in the Annmarie Gift Shop, an Ornament Show & Sale, Holiday Pop-up Shops, and much more! Special themed nights throughout the month include, Snow Princess Night, Scout Caroling Night, Santa Night, Festive Holiday Attire Night and Pet Night. Special nights include live characters who will greet guests and provide great photo opportunities.

"Appreciation Nights" throughout the event sponsored by friends in the community, offer special admission for public servants such as first responders, educators and military members. These nights are open to the public and are a great opportunity to come out and thank these dedicated people for their service.

FIRST WEEKEND SCHEDULE

- Friday, Nov. 29, 6-9 pm. - Madrigals of the Chesapeake Choral Arts Society, a cappella.
- Saturday, November 30, 6-9 p.m. - Riverside South, bluegrass.
- Sunday, Dec. 1, 6-9 p.m. - Dominic Fragman, original mix. It's Festive Holiday Attire Night! Wear your most festive holiday sweater, hat, suit, etc. for $1 off admission.

Admission at the door is $7; free for children (2 & under); members free. For detailed information and a discount coupon, visit www.annmariegarden.org or call 410-326-4640.

Small Business Saturday Helps The Little Guy

BY GUY LEONARD
STAFF WRITER

Every year shoppers flock to big box stores the day after Thanksgiving, known as Black Friday, to get the Christmas gift season started.

Small businesses, mom and pop shops and the like all look to Small Business Saturday, immediately after the biggest shopping day of the year, to give them a boost.

Ellen Lewis, owner of Crazy for Ewe yarn shop in Leonardtown and president of the Leonardtown Business Association, said Small Business Saturday is one of the most critical for the town's wellbeing.

"It's huge for us," Lewis said. "We are the spot in St. Mary's County where small, independent businesses congregate."

The small business day generates much interest in the downtown businesses, she said, and she encourages any business to put out notices on their store front or social media that the day is geared towards supporting entrepreneurship in the communities where shoppers live.

Small businesses may not have all the items the average shopper wants at the lowest price, but, Lewis said, they specialize in unique gifts.

"[Leonardtown small businesses are] the place where people who are looking for a unique experience can find it," Lewis said.

Aside from retail boutique shops, businesses such as Escape Rooms of Southern Maryland and Board and Brush offer special activities that can be had in lieu of gifts for the holiday season.

Small Business Saturday usually brings out many customers to the town, Lewis said.

"We do have quite a bit of foot traffic," Lewis said. "People have been amazingly responsive for years."

"It's about appreciating that small business that you'd miss if it were gone," Lewis said. "It's a chance for you to come out and support and shop at businesses that make Leonardtown what it is."

"It's about showing the flag."

Patronizing a small business means keeping money close to home, Lewis said.

"A much higher percentage of your spending dollars stay in your community," Lewis said.

Calvert County government is also encouraging its citizens to shop at an independently owned small business Nov. 30.

"The holidays are here, and many small and local businesses will offer seasonal deals to celebrate," a release from the Calvert County economic development department states. "Citizens can visit www.eCalvert.com/ShopLocal for a list of businesses offering specials, discounts and giveaways during the event. Calvert County is home to a variety of unique businesses with eclectic offerings, delicious delicacies, vintage mementos and so much more. Take the opportunity to find the perfect holiday present or treat yourself while supporting businesses and jobs within your own community."

Small Business Saturday was started by American Express credit card company years ago but has since become a regular community event to help local shop keepers.

The day falls between Black Friday and Cyber Monday, rounding out the biggest shopping weekend in the country.

The internet and the ability to purchase nearly anything on-line has deeply cut into retail profits, but Lewis said, cyber shopping doesn't have all the advantages that local retail can provide.

"You can buy clothes on-line but you can't try them on," Lewis said. "The internet is here to stay but small, brick and mortar retail is here to stay, too."

Shop on Museum Store Sunday

On Sunday, Dec. 1, 2019, for the third consecutive year, more than 1,200 Museum Stores representing all 50 states and the District of Columbia, 15 countries and four continents will offer a unique and experiential shopping opportunity at museums and cultural institutions during Museum Store Sunday. The Friends of St. Clement's Island & Piney Point Museums are thrilled to participate in this signature annual initiative and join museum stores worldwide by offering quality gifts filled with inspiration and educational value to consumers and support our county-run historic sites and museums.

"We are delighted to participate in Museum Store Sunday and offer a unique shopping experience with special events including our free admission Holiday Open Houses Dec. 1 and a 25 percent off promotion on our exclusive Crab Pot Christmas Trees," said Jayne C. Walsh, Museum Store Manager. "This year, we are also excited to showcase our broad assortments of local crafts, books and art produced by Southern Maryland artisans and authors. We invite everyone to 'Be A Patron,' as every purchase from our museum stores directly supports the educational mission of the St. Mary's County Museum Division."

Unique local items are not the only gifts you can purchase at the museums. "We are also excited to offer a free family membership with a purchase of $100 or more in the Museum Stores this holiday season," says Amber Puschinsky, Fundraising Coordinator for the Friends. "Buying a Membership helps support the museum all year-round and includes many great benefits such as a 10 percent in-store discount and lots of other perks."

Museum Store Sunday is just the start of the many ways you can support your local museums this holiday season. The public can enjoy holiday shopping at the museum stores all December long. Shoppers can visit the stores daily, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m., except Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, when they are closed. While shopping, why not check out the holiday exhibits as well? They run from Dec. 1, 2019 until Jan. 5, 2020, at both St. Clement's Island Museum and Piney Point Lighthouse Museum daily, noon to 4 p.m., except Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, when they are closed. Regular admission rates apply.

Museum Store Sunday has quickly become the global annual day to "Be a Patron" and shop conscientiously and support museum stores and their missions worldwide. While there is only one Museum Store Sunday each year, everyone is encouraged to "Be a Patron" of museums and museum stores all year-round.

For more information on events and promotions during Museum Store Sunday at St. Clement's Island Museum and Piney Point Lighthouse Museum, please Facebook.com/SCIMuseum, Facebook.com/1836Light or museums.stmarysmd.com.

AUTOMATIC STANDBY GENERATORS

What Will a Power Outage Cost You?

As a homeowner, you understand the havoc an extended power outage can have on your home. From a flooded basement to pipes that freeze and burst when your heating system is down, a power failure can cost you more than a night without TV or Internet access. As the #1 selling brand of automatic home standby generators, Generac continues to design and manufacture products to protect your home from threats like intense weather and cyberterrorism, which constantly endanger our overloaded power grid. For help identifying a backup power solution that can meet your needs and personal budget.

MADRIGAL DINNERS

HISTORIC ST. MARY'S CITY

Welcome the holiday season with feasting, firelight, and beautiful music in the lavishly decorated Reconstructed State House of 1676. Holiday revelers have feasted through the ages. In the colony, delicacies arrived with the tobacco fleet towards the end of the year, and cool weather signaled time for butchering meat and decanting beverages that had fermented since the harvest. The notion of adding music to the meal was introduced to England from Italy, and the 16th-century lords and ladies of the land enjoyed great madrigal feasts. Today's madrigal dinners feature other customs that were probably familiar to the colonists. The burning of a Yule log, a common practice by the Middle Ages, was thought to bring good luck in the New Year. Plants that magically remained green through the bleakest times have held a special significance since Ancient Rome. In 15th- and 16th-century England, musicians sang carols to introduce the Christmas story to those who were unable to read. All of these traditions are part of HSMC's Madrigal Dinners.

Reservations are required and will be accepted beginning in October. Contact Mary Bohanan at MaryB@DigsHistory.org.
